

2001 through 2003

Governor's Coalition for Youth with Disabilities (GCYD) SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

May 31, 2001 - Foundation for Educational Advancement (FEA) Scholarship provided at Governor's Coalition for Youth with Disabilities (GCYD) Ceremony for Hartford Student

The Honorable Governor John G. Rowland and Dr. Vivian Cross, Program Director for the 2001 Educational / Health Summit and Director of the Foundation for Educational Advancement, Inc. (FEA) awarded Shavonne Cox of Hartford Public Schools with a Governor's Coalition for Youth with Disabilities (GCYD) $1000 scholarship at a special ceremony held at the State Capitol on May 31, 2001. Shavonne's educational goal is to pursue a professional career in the field of medicine.

May 30, 2002 - FEA Sponsors Governor's Coalition for Youth with Disabilities (GCYD) Scholarship for Hartford Student

The Honorable Governor John G. Rowland personally awarded Damon Karydis, a Bulkeley High School senior, his $1000 scholarship certificate on May 30, 2002 at the State Capitol. Damon's educational goal is to pursue a professional career in computer science.

FEA Scholarship Facilitator: Dr. Vivian Cross

May 2003 - FEA SCHOLARSHIP AWARD Funding provided to the Governor's Coalition for Youth with Disabilities Scholarship for New Britain Public Schools Student

The Honorable Governor John G. Rowland personally awarded Craig Staranchak, a New Britain High School senior, his $1000 scholarship certificate on May 29, 2003 at the State Capitol. Craig volunteers his time with the New Britain Youth Soccer league, Special Olympics and his church. He plans to study Elementary Education

FEA President: Dr. Vivian Cross