

H.E.L.P.

Health Education Lead Poisoning Conference Session

Title of Workshop: Educational Implications of Childhood Lead Poisoning:

Health and Educational Barriers to Student Learning and NCLB

Mayor's Office for Young Children

First Early Childhood Conference

1. What is the magnitude of the childhood lead poisoning problem ?
2. What is its impact on young children ?
3. What are the educational, behavioral and social implications?
4. What role can you play to prevent it ?

Foundation for Educational Advancement

Executive Director and H.E.L.P Project Developer / Coordinator: Dr. Vivian Cross

2008 Hartford Health Education Lead Poisoning Initiative

FEA Presentation at Mayor's Conference on Young Children

Dr. Jose Colon, Director of the Mayor's Office for Young Children and Dr. Vivian Cross, Director of the Foundation for Educational Advancement, Inc. and H.E.L.P. Coordinator.

Above: (L to R) Ann Louise Thompson – CT State Department of Education Special Education Bureau Chief; Rosemary Gupton, City of Hartford Lead Outreach Coordinator, Kathryn Brooks, City of Hartford Case Manager for Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Program; Dr. Vivian Cross, FEA Executive Director, Stephen Craig - Environmental Training and Assessment Trainer - Boston Lead Company, President and Director of Environmental Schools

Dr. Vivian Cross, FEA Executive Director and Health Education Lead Poisoning Initiative Coordinator and Jane Prowell, Assistant Director of the Mayor's Office for Young Children